CITY COUNCILMAN

... Gip Chapman has proposed that serious thought be given to expanding the Hondo City Park. In fact, he has some very good reasons why he thinks such action should be taken.

The City owns the land north and west of the present park and much of this area is covered by the same big, beautiful trees. This area could be dotted with picnic tables and barbecue pits (several small ones or perhaps another larger one) and maybe another covered area.

Then farther on is the old barbecue pit which could be excavated and dammed and turned into a fine fishing pond, on the banks of which picnic tables could be placed.

All of this has been investigated in the past by various agencies including the Soil Conservation Service. E. L. Abbott, Unit supervisor of the Medina Valley Soil and Water Conservation District, tells me the dam and pond idea is both feasible and practical.

Total cost of doing all this is estimated to run from $8 to $15,000. And over the period of years it could mean much more than that to the town as a whole.

Supporting factors which tend to encourage action along these lines would be additional facilities for local individuals, groups and organizations. Then comes the summer time and reunions abound. At the present time one family reunion can tie up the park for an entire day. If it were expanded several such reunions could be carried on at the same time.

I lived in Lampasas at one time and the city there owns a similar park to the one in Hondo. In researching a story on reunions for the newspaper, I discovered as high as nine family reunions were held on some Sundays.

And they don't necessarily have to have any family ties with Hondo or Medina County. Many reunions are held in locations of convenience--so the Hondo City Park could well attract many outside reunions.

"So?" you might ask.

Reunions mean people from many areas collecting in Hondo. Large groups of people. Some will no doubt spend money in Hondo, money for motels, gasoline, etc. And there could be a reasonable fee for the use of the park area, all of which means money circulating through our city.

All in all, I feel the project proposed by Gip Chapman would prove very beneficial to the people of Hondo.

WOULD YOU BELIEVE

... the area weathermen, those hardy souls who remain undaunted after years of predicting the weather, did it again last week!

They scheduled their annual luau and it rained on the day they held it. Now men (and those women who might want to be equals in the game of prognostications), can you really expect us to keep the faith in your predictions when you can't even get fair weather for your own luau!

This flitting can be dangerous, especially if it is done on bicycles. Without proper safety precautions, cycling can bring about serious injuries or worse.

AUTHOR ADDRESSES CLASS

... Author Fred Gipson speaks to Mrs. Gerald Hay's Summer reading improvement class at McDowell School about his life and his stories.

Author visits McDowell School

Fred Gipson, author of outdoors adventures for all ages, spent an hour with Mrs. Gerald Hay's 6th, 7th and 8th grade summer reading improvement class on Friday June 9. He told stories of his own youth, answered questions, and offered advice on reading and writing.

Mr. Gipson relates well with Texas youngsters ... he was one too, about 60 years ago in Mason, Texas. Born and raised on a Hill Country dryland farm, Gipson spent his childhood days and nights like some of his characters, enjoying the outdoors. Today, slowed by nagging arthritis which has encumbered him with a neck brace and cane, Gipson still is fascinated by the woods, and lives on the banks of the Llano River where he fishes, hunts and enjoys observing nature.

His fascination has spilled over into his writings, where boys and girls and animals haunt the woods in adventure stories.

Most popular of his books is the one titled "Old Yeller". This single volume has been translated into ten foreign languages, sold over two million copies in America, and was made into a successful Walt Disney movie whose screenplay Gipson also wrote.

Of Gipson's ten books, two others were later rewritten for movies. They were "Savage Sam" and "Hound Dog Man". Television plays "Brush Roper" and "Sancho, the Homing Steer" were also authored by Gipson.

These and other writings have earned Gipson the William Allen White Award, the First Sequoyah Award, the Hawaiian Nene Award, the Northwest Pacific Award, and lifetime fellowships in the Texas Institute of Letters (only the fourth lifetime fellowship in its 37 years of existence) and the International Institute of Arts and Letters in Zurich.

Hondoan in Dunlay wreck

A two-car accident shortly before midnight Monday, June 12, caused two San Antonio residents to be hospitalized.

Taken to a San Antonio hospital were Opel Carlson and Richard Harper. Harper was a passenger in the car driven by Miss Carlson.

Their auto was struck from behind by a car driven by Tony Longoria of Hondo. Longoria received a slight blow on the head but did not require hospitalization.

The accident occurred about 11:30 Monday night, two miles east of Dunlay. Hondo firemen were called to the scene as gasoline began to spill from one of the cars onto the highway, but it evaporated quickly and no fire resulted.

Harper and Miss Carlson were hospitalized in San Antonio with moderate injuries, authorities said. Miss Carlson was pinned in the wreckage of her auto for about 15 minutes before she could be freed.

City Council hears complaints

The regular meeting of the Hondo City Council on Tuesday night was the scene of spirited discussion between council members and Thomas Santos, who represented a delegation of citizens attending the meeting.

The confrontation concerned the treatment of Lázaro Gonzales by City policemen, jail personnel, and city doctors, in connection with his alleged mistreatment while being held as a prisoner in the County Jail.

Gonzales is alleged to have been attacked by two other prisoners in the jail after he was arrested and jailed on a drunkenness charge on Sunday night, June 4, around 11 p.m. The citizens' delegation charged that he was denied proper medical treatment for four days until payment of the bill at a Castroville hospital was guaranteed by a private citizen. Gonzales was found to be suffering from a dislocated wrist, various bruises and three broken ribs.

Hondo City Police Chief Jerry Williamson, whose patrolman had made the arrest, replied that Gonzales had been taken to the doctor of his choice on Monday morning, and that he had been to doctors three times to receive treatment, always being transported at police expense. Furthermore, Williamson maintained that in each instance, payment of expenses by city or county funds or both had been guaranteed. Gonzales was treated in Castroville at private expense.

The delegation also claimed that the location of his arrest had been falsely reported. Williamson replied that when a man is far from his home and not making an effort to go home, he is jailed. In this instance, Gonzales was reported by police as arrested near St. John's Church, a location across town from his place of residence on the northwest side of Hondo.

In other action at the meeting, it was decided to donate a used city mower to the Pruneda Post, American Legion, rather than to ask for bids to dispose of it.

In the report from the Water Department, it was noted that children are presenting a danger during operation of the mosquito fogger by running along in the fog behind the machine. This hazard caused the Council to request

Poerner recommends vocational training guidelines

Representative John H. Poerner has recommended that all state agencies connected with vocational-technical training be provided with guidelines defining the scope of their respective responsibilities and objectives.

"The recommendation, made in the form of a motion which was adopted by the House Interim Committee on Vocational and Technical Education, should help to eliminate duplication of services and promote cooperation among the various institutions and agencies involved," Poerner said.

Poerner's motion was made at a meeting of the committee held Tuesday and Wednesday (June 6-7) in Amarillo in cooperation with Texas State Technical Institute, the Junior College of Amarillo, and the Independent School District of Amarillo.

The House Interim Study Committee is composed of four House members in addition to Representative Poerner and six members of the public.

"I think increased coordination between the affected agencies is one of the most vital factors in offering an efficient program of vocational and technical training to all our Texas citizens," Poerner said.

Cypress City celebration scheduled for June 17

Sabinal's 9th Annual Cypress City Celebration is set for June 17. The Community sponsored event has added new attractions and greater attendance each year.

Added this year will be a going-going-gone auction and an old-fashioned Ice Cream Parlor—with real home-made crank-style ice cream. All local merchants will have open house and many will give door prizes. Two hospitality booths will offer free refreshments. Kid movies will be shown at 10 a. m. and 2 p. m. and are free.

The Art-Craft Shows and

Sales have drawn much interest from local and out-of-town craftsmen who are planning extensive displays.

The Antique Flea Market, always a favorite of the crowds, promises to be better than ever. "Flee to the flea market on the jump" had been suggested as the 1972 slogan for this attraction. Fiddlers from many Texas towns will compete for cash awards in the Fiddlers contest. This event has two categories for contestants age 60 and over and under 60 years of age. Only amateur fiddlers may enter.

Sabinal High School will hold a two-day Tennis Tournament on June 16-17, which will be six singles divisions and six doubles.

If enough interest is shown there will be a Womens division apart from the Girls

High School division. Expected are entries from Carrizo Springs, Comfort, Brackettville, Junction, Kerrville, LaPryor, Leakey, Nueces Canyon, Pearsall, Rocksprings, San Antonio and Uvalde. Others will also be welcomed.

A barbecue dinner will be served at noon. Mexican food will be featured for the meal.

Climax of the day-long event will be a rodeo at 8 p. m. and a dance from 9 p. m. to 1 a. m. with music by The Bootleggers.

All Artist-Craftsmen and Fiddlers are invited to participate. There is no charge to enter.

Sabinalians invite "Everyone in getting-here distance" to join with them in their 9th annual Cypress City Celebration on Saturday, June 17th.

County oil, gas tops $½ million

Sale of Medina County oil and gas production accounted for $689,787 of the county's economic output for 1971, according to a study by Texas Mid-Continent Oil & Gas Assn.

In producing 190,769 barrels of crude oil and 120 million cu. ft. of natural gas, the county ranked 175th in Texas. Value of its crude oil was $671,507; natural gas value was $18,280.

The county is among 190 Texas counties with oil and gas production value topping $100,000 although 211 counties produce oil and gas.

"Medina County oil and gas wells made a significant contribution to Texas' share of the nation's energy needs last year, but growing demand is sapping reserves in Texas faster than they can be replaced," Robert A. Buschman, Association president, said. "As fewer new fields are discovered, due to less drilling, the continuing strong economy and tax base of many Texas counties may now depend on updating Texas oil conservation laws to encourage wide use of new recovery technology," he said.

Local Business

"Too often we don't locate customers because we don't know who our competitors are. . . . A furniture dealer speaking to fellow merchants at a convention explained.

"We are not so much in competition with other furniture dealers as we are with other types of firms," he said.

The speaker cited the potential purchases of a young married couple. "There was a time, when the first big purchase would be for good furniture. However, now if a young couple has any savings it may go to any one of a dozen different places," he said.

Some of the competitors of the local furniture store, may be hundreds or thousands of miles away, the dealer pointed out.

"The couple may decide to spend their whole pile on a tour of Europe and spend their first year sitting on apple crates. They may buy a second automobile manufactured abroad. The young wife may order a fur coat from a Manhattan department store," he said.

"All of these businesses are advertising in my hometown and your hometown in magazines, television, and regional newspapers. They are getting a large share of business which we used to take for granted. They are our chief competitors—not the dealer down the street.

"Rather than fighting one another, our best answer to this challenge is more and better advertising of our own which will keep this money in the local market," the speaker said.

The Association study showed that Medina County farmers, ranchers, and other royalty owners received $86,223 as their share of the production.

The county's wells generated $30,889 in crude oil production taxes for state government and $1,371 in state taxes on natural gas. Oil and gas producers spent $118,398 in drilling three wells in the county last year.

Texas Employment Commission figures showed 69 oil and gas industry employees in the county last year, with an annual payroll of $427,628.

June 15 deadline nears for 2nd tax installment

Many taxpayers may be in trouble unknowingly with Uncle Sam for failing to file an estimated tax declaration for 1972 at the time of filing their 1971 tax return. And the June 15th deadline for paying the second installment is snaking up fast according to John Schubert, local manager for the H&R Block Co., America's largest tax service.

There may be taxpayers who will not be required to pay estimated tax although they were required to in past years. The Revenue Act of 1971 changed many of the ground rules.

Now for 1972, a declaration of estimated tax will be required only if the taxpayer has more than $500 in income which was not subject to withholding and his estimated tax liability is more than $100. Prior required the filing of an estimated tax was more than $200 from other than wage income and his estimated tax was more than $40.

Actually, if taxpayers have at least 80% of their final tax liability on deposit, either through withholding or estimated payments, there is no penalty involved, Schubert said. But the taxpayer that wants to play it safe and avoid penalty for underpayments should definitely check the tax law. Our office is open year round to offer assistance with estimates and answers to tax questions without charge. For appointments call FO 3-7448. D'Hanis, collect after 6 p. m.

4 Yancey boys go to camp

Four boys from Yancey have been chosen by the Hondo Salvation Army Service Unit Committee for a free one week vacation beginning June 25th at The Salvation Army's 370-acre Camp Hoblitzelle near Dallas.

"Our boys will be among 900 others sponsored by Salvation Army Service Units all over Texas who will attend the camp over a four-week period this summer," John McAnelly, the committee's camp chairman said. They will go to camp by bus with all expenses paid.

Boys attending from Yancey (Hondo) are Roberto DeLeon, Frank Cabrera, Mario Guana and Mike Lopez.

At Camp Hoblitzelle, the boys will live in redwood and brick cabins and will receive well-balanced meals in the camp's dining room. All organized activities are supervised by coaches and counselors and include boating, fishing, archery, horse-back riding, swimming, crafts, movies, sports—everything it takes to keep a boy busy for a whole week.

The Salvation Army operates the camp year round for people who could not otherwise afford to go to camp. During the summer months over 4,000 will vacation at Camp Hoblitzelle.

The building of Camp Hoblitzelle was financed by donations from more than 100 Texans. Included in the facilities are a 30-acre lake for boating and fishing, recreation hall, large swimming pool, a western fort, animals and playing fields for a number of outdoor sports.

The past two years two boys from Castroville and two boys from Hondo have been sent to the Salvation Army Camp in June. Next year we hope four more boys from the Hondo area will have an opportunity to enjoy this camp.

that the operation be carried on in early morning hours so that the danger can be minimized.

Hugh Meyer, City Attorney, told the Council that revisions may be necessary in the subdivision ordinance. Presently the ordinance places too high a cost burden on the developer to allow him a fair profit on any but higher-priced lots. Noting the rapid growth of the Colonies West subdivision, which utilizes moderate-cost lots, Meyer suggested that the growth potential for low-cost lots is great in Hondo.

Mayor George Brucks called a special closed meeting of the Council and Department heads for the purpose of revision of this ordinance set for Tuesday, June 20, at 7:30 p.m. An open meeting of the Council, where citizens may submit suggestions and additions was also set for the same purpose for Tuesday, June 27, also at 7:30 p.m.

Reading program begins at Hondo Public Library

Starting June 12 at Hondo Public Library was the annual reading program, sponsored by the Texas State Library's Reading Club. Continuing for six weeks, it includes all school children from Kindergarten through high school. Twelve books are to be read on each child's grade level, and those completing the program will be awarded 1972 reading certificates.

Mary Jo Schweers and Marilyn Mogford presented the library's Story Hour on June 13. Ensuing story hours will be held Tuesday, June 27, 2:30 p.m., with Doris Saathoff and Jan Oeffinger, and Tuesday, July 11, 2:30 p.m., with Evelyn Dittmar and Nancy Fridge.

Mrs. Lottie Maw, Librarian, reminds Hondo readers that library hours are 11:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m., Monday through Friday. Mrs. Maw also asks that readers return overdue books. There is a book drop at the library where books can be left if you are unable to get to the library during regular hours. New children's books on the library shelves are "Black

The library is always happy to receive reading donations, so don't forget the library when you have finished your book club selections, paperbacks, current magazines, etc.

Two new helpers are now working at the library for the summer through the cooperation of the Neighborhood Youth Corps project 2008-48. These young ladies are Lupe Martinez and Edna Molina.

Mason High School and the University of Texas, and began writing as a news reporter for a San Angelo newspaper.

Speaking of his experiences to the McDowell school-children, Gipson admitted he didn't set out to write Texas history, but that in each story, though the characters may be fictional, the historical setting, physical surroundings, and traits of animals are as true to life as he can make them. Speaking on truth in historical fiction, Gipson declared,

"I once gave a bad review in a New York newspaper on a children's adventure book where the rattlesnakes supposedly charged out of a hole to attack one of the characters. They even mentioned one especially mean snake with his fangs bared. Now, everybody knows that a rattlesnake is just about the most timid creature in the woods unless he's attacked first, and it's impossible for a rattler to 'bare his fangs' except for the split second when he strikes. That editor got on me for giving a children's book such a bad review, so I told him kids have just as much right as grown people to authentic books.

"When I write an adventure book, I always end up slipping in as much information on the outdoors as adventure."

While on the subject, Gipson observed that children can spot falsehoods in the books they read.

"We rewrote a segment of 'Savage Sam' where a white hostage had his hands tied behind his back. In the rewrite, we forgot to say how he got loose, but we did mention that he shook his fist at the Cavalry. That part went unnoticed through all the proofreaders and through 100,000 copies before a boy in Arkansas wrote to complain to me about a person shaking his fist when his hands are tied. Kids can spot those things, even though I and the publisher missed it in this case, along with a hundred thousand others."

Before leaving, Gipson cautioned the students to look around and notice their surroundings, and remember their experiences; and to read often to learn about other people's experiences.

Cindi Cooper
Miss Cooper to marry

Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Cooper of Dallas announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Cindi, to Dan C. Dalley, son of Mrs. Clarence Dalley and the late Mr. Dalley of Hondo.

Miss Cooper is a graduate of MacArthur High School in Irving. She is presently a senior at Southwest Texas State University where she is majoring in psychology.

Mr. Dalley is a graduate of Hondo High School and he is a senior at Southwest Texas State University where he is majoring in agronomy.

The wedding is planned for December 30 at the First Methodist Church in San Marcos.

Marriage vows were exchanged by Miss Jacqueline Louise Buske and Gregory Kenneth Meyer Saturday evening, May 27, 1972 in the First Protestant United Church of Christ of New Braunfels. Dr. Leslie Pugh officiated at the double-ring ceremony in a candlelight setting.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack W. Buske of New Braunfels and parents of the groom are Dr. and Mrs. John H. Meyer of Hondo.

Mrs. Warden Clark played traditional organ music and "The Lord's Prayer" during the service. Miss Jan Kennedy was flute soloist.

White gladiolas and killian daisies, forming tall arrangements, were arranged on the altar which were flanked by candelabra. Numerous pedestal candelabra garlanded with polished English ivy and white satin bows were placed in the chancel, below the chancel and throughout the church. All pews in the center aisle of the church were marked with satin streamers and bows.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a Gallia formal gown of white silk organza. Swiss lace appliques giving the resemblance of tiny clustered grapes and leaves combined with Venice edging detailed the high neckline, empire bodice, and long, deeply cuffed bishop sleeves. Delightful garlands of the exquisite lace graced the full flared skirt, carrying it wide and full to chapel length. Venice edging and flower lace motifs delightfully flowered the long silk illusion veil which cascaded from a camelot caplet of lace petals. The Priscilla veil was divided down the center back and was adorned with Venice edging on all four sides. She carried a cascade bouquet of Jack Frost roses, stephanotis and gypsophelia.

For her maid of honor the bride chose Miss Susan Meyer of Austin and the matron of honor was Mrs. Carroll Coleman of Houston.

Bridesmaids were Miss Debra Mueller, New Braunfels; Miss Linda Heitkamp, Austin; Miss Sharon Meyer, Hondo; and Miss Carla Feuerbacher, Houston.

The attendants wore identical floor-length gowns of turquoise chiffon fashioned with a ring collar and a shirred bodice in an empire style banded with ribbon with multi-colored appliqued flowers. The full-length sleeves were edged with deep shirred cuffs and the flowing skirts fell into a graceful back drape. They wore sprigs of turquoise gypsophelia in their hair and carried spring bouquets consisting of yellow and white daisies, pink junior bridesmaid roses and gypsophelia accented with turquoise ribbon.

Dr. John H. Meyer attended his son as best man and groomsmen were Barry Buske, New Braunfels; Albert Haegelin, Jr., Hondo; John H. Meyer, Jr., Fort Worth, and Jim Creel and Charles Fusselman, Austin.

Ushers were Maurice Fischer, New Braunfels; Bill Heitkamp of Houston; Ferdinand Simon, Kingsville, and Henry Luddeke, III, Eagle Pass. Russell Fischer was candlelighter.

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony in the Civic Center. A three-tiered epergne centered the bride's table holding a massive array of white stock, killian daisies and gypsophelia. Flanking the arrangement were tall silver candelabra. The groom's table was laid with a bronze colored festive cloth and was centered with brass candelabra with brown tapered flanked by brass hurricane cups.

Background music for the reception was provided by the Rusty Ruppel Orchestra who later played for dancing.

Miss Melanie Monroe, Luling, and Glynna Crow, New Braunfels, were in charge of the bride's book.

Carrying white wicker baskets Misses Wendy Hoffmann, Michelle Sacco and Suzanne Nolte distributed rice bags with which to shower the couple as they left for their wedding trip to New Orleans, Louisiana.

The couple will be at home at 1407 Crestwood, Austin. The groom is a graduate of Texas A&M University, College Station, and is completing studies in architecture at the University of Texas in Austin. The bride is a graduate of SWT, San Marcos, and is planning to teach in the Austin Independent School District.

REHEARSAL SUPPER

Dr. and Mrs. John H. Meyer were hosts for the rehearsal supper in New Braunfels. Members of the wedding party were guests for the supper.

This week

That's all she wrote

by Edna McDade

On or before July 1, I am relinquishing my Hondo citizenship, a sincerely appreciated privilege which I have enjoyed for 11 years. After some 14 years as a transplanted Yankee, my son John has returned to Texas where he hopes to remain. Which proves the old saying that you can take a native Texan out of Texas, but you can't take Texas out of a Texan.

I shall be joining John in Corpus Christi and we are both anticipating the joys of being "a family" once again, after the years of solo-living.

PAUL REILY asked me if I were aware that hurricanes have an affinity for the Texas gulf coast. I am indeed, and am also aware that on the 1972 list of such weather tantrums is one named EDNA.

Isn't weather one of the subjects everyone talks about and no one can do anything about? In this regard, I am inclined to follow Eeyore's happy philosophy as related in Milne's The House at Pooh Corner and which I now share with my readers:

"It is snowing," said Eeyore gloomily.

"So it is."

"And freezing."

"Is it?"

"Yes, said Eeyore. "However," he said, brightening up a little. "We haven't had any earthquakes lately."

If Hurricane EDNA hits Corpus after I do, I'll try to catch a breeze blowing in the direction of Hondo and you might have me right back where I started from!

Packing for a cross-country move is old-hat to me. For the first 30 years after my marriage, I lived in the same San Antonio suburban community before one move across town.

Since then, I have lived in Oklahoma City, Tulsa and Dallas before coming to Hondo, to be near my "baby" sister, SALLY BRUCKS--and I won't go into the mixed emotions involved in leaving her!

Always, the first things I pack are my beloved books. Between us, John and I have a modest library of several hundred books. Problem with me is that, try as I might to weed out a few to make the move less weighty, I find I can't bear to part with enough to make a dent in the shelves. Furthermore, I spend so much time getting reacquainted with those which are special treasures, that procrastination sets in and I waste a lot of valuable time "thumbing through".

Among the bits of dubiously useful information, I found this which might help us all to appreciate how difficult our English language can be for people of other nationalities trying to adopt ours. You will find seven different pronunciations for words ending in o-u-g-h:

"Though the tough cough and hiccough plough me through / O'er life's dark lough (lake) my way I'll pursue."

A back-to-nature editorial in a big city daily complains, "June used to be full of butterflies, too, but something (probably pesticides) has cut their numbers alarmingly."

I know that the clouds of butterflies that helped to decorate the honeysuckle, crape myrtle and rosebushes in my yard have been scarce this year. But, come mosquito time, even the necessary fogging which takes toll of some of the "good" bugs while knocking out the bad ones, must be tolerated, gratefully.

The FRANK and OLIVIA REYES family of D' Hanis have three children, all with the same middle name. They are FRANKIE LYNN, ROY LYNN and RAY LYNN, which makes for unusual identification. Frank is employed at the D'Hanis Brick and Tile plant.

The late FRITZ ROTHE, Sr., a surveyor, began keeping rain records in 1880, when a total of 41-3/4 inches was recorded in the D'Hanis area. Until 1900, he used a tin cup as a rain gauge. For the next 34 years, a standard rain gauge was used.

This is from information found in the many valuable references which I have found of interest in the miscellaneous memorabilia donated to our Medina County Museum, from the Schreiber Estate through the courtesy of its administrator, ALMA SCHREIBER SASSER.

Be of good cheer, friends, and lend this column your eyes for at least two more weeks. Then you can settle down to more worthwhile reading!

LEGALIZE MARIJUANA - WHY?

IS MARIJUANA REALLY HARMFUL?

Last week's column mentioned that marijuana had not been PROVED, as yet, to be physically damaging to the body. If this is the case, then why does the "establishment" still insist that the use of marijuana is wrong. Let's look at some worthy opinions.

In his comments on his own clinical observations of those who had smoked marijuana, Dr. West of UCLA said, "What I have seen is... what I believe to be biological changes in brain function because of the use of marijuana." This particular researcher indicated his observations showed some marijuana users showed permanent personality changes, inability to concentrate, impaired ability to communicate with others, impairment in the flow of their thinking, apathy and loss of insight.

And, what most of us lose sight of is the fact that any destruction of brain tissue is permanent! Brain cells do not regenerate.

Dr. Constantinos J. Miras, of the University of Athens said he found a clear connection between brain changes he felt were brought on by the use of marijuana... and deranged behavior. In his studies of constant marijuana users, Dr. Miras found abnormal brain wave readings, and chronic lethargy with loss of inhibitions. This, he said, indicated to him significant organic brain change.

Now, if these were simply opinions given on the spur of the moment, we wouldn't take great stock in them, but these are findings of men who have actually been in research on the subject of the effects of marijuana. Opinions often change while research findings seldom do. Can we discount such statements as this coming from educated, qualified professionals? And this is the type of report which comes from scientists all over the world. Yet, because their works have not been proved beyond all doubt, as is our American way, most people do not take such reports seriously.

Another area of important consideration is found in the opinion of such men as Dr. Alton Ochsner, famed chest surgeon in New Orleans. This highly respected professional says he is distressed by parallels he sees between today's youth who try to promote the use of marijuana and those people who advocated the use of regular tobacco cigarettes about two decades ago. In the days before science learned the true results of cigarette smoking, they were supposed to help digestion, generate energy, help mental capacity grow and sooth the user's nerves. Today we know better; we know now that cigarette smoking is the primary cause of lung cancer!

Many former users of marijuana... those whose eyes have been opened by the experience... give us the best reasons why marijuana should remain "an outlaw." Here are some direct quotations from statements by former users: (1) "Marijuana makes me incapable of normal function - I cannot drive a car or operate a machine properly, or safely." (2) "It slows me down - I lost my initiative when I started using marijuana." (3) "I become irritable, stubborn and get into frequent arguments when I am 'high' on marijuana." (4) "I go into panic." (5) "It always makes me sleepy and lazy." (6) "Marijuana makes me too generous - I gave away everything I had - for instance, I would buy drinks for everyone in the bar until I was broke." (7) "I never took anything seriously after starting the use of marijuana." (8) "After using marijuana for some time, I drew into a shell; I lost my job because I could not communicate with my boss." (9) "Using it made me lazy. I never could hold a job after I got into the habit of using marijuana." (10) "I got arrested for many different violations, when I was 'high', including rape." (11) "I took part in about 15 drug store robberies with a friend, in search of narcotics. We would always get 'high' on marijuana beforehand." (12) "After I started to use marijuana, I quit college and did not want to work. I beat up my wife several times when I was high. It makes me feel happy and increases my perceptiveness." (13) "I thought I was good at everything in school and I thought marijuana made me even better - but it turned out to be untrue - I flunked out." (14) "Marijuana slowed me down so much I started using pills to stimulate me." (15) "What used to bother me about using marijuana was that it numbed my brain - I couldn't think straight, I could not drive well." (16) "It slowed me down so much I had to drop out of school."

Most of the above user's making these statements said that marijuana made them "feel good", if only temporarily. But, is "feeling good" justification for robbery... rape... killing with a motor vehicle... even losing one's job??

There has been much discussion on the subject of whether marijuana is a forerunner to the use of what are termed "hard drugs." Heroin use, one of the greatest killers of our time, has been blamed on the prior use of marijuana by many of its addicts. Still, marijuana advocates will tell you this happens only in isolated cases, never mind the thousands of cases on record.

So, in considering the question, "is marijuana really harmful?", the answer is obvious - no, not if you don't consider the facts, not if you disregard the findings and opinions of competent researchers, not if you put your head in the sand and ignore all of the warning signals!

Next week we'll go over the possibilities of how legalization of marijuana could effect taxes, etc. I hope every level-headed, straight-thinking citizen in this community will be with me at that time.

Attending from Hondo were Mr. and Mrs. Edward Fain, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Chapa, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Dugan, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Rexroad and Mr. and Mrs. Carter Moore.

Also present for the opening celebration were Ft. Worth Regional Director Lawrence Mohar, Regional Engineer Richard Baughman, Regional Users Service Representative Carl Reber, Mete-

Hondo student sees Europe

Judy Christopher, majoring in German at Angelo State University in San Angelo, recently travelled to Germany with a group from the National Association of German students.

She will work at the Hotel Kreuzeck, at Garmisch in West Germany. Garmisch is located in the Bavarian Alps.

After working about two months, Judy plans to tour Europe, at which time she hopes to visit the Eduard Finger family of Norderentzen, France, relatives who attended the Finger reunion here in April.

She also plans to visit Rath relatives in Aldingen, Germany, as well as Christopher relatives in Denmark.

Judy is the daughter of Mrs. Bobbie Rath Christopher of Hondo.

Bendele makes honor roll

Gerald L. Bendele received notification from P. R. Culwell, dean of San Antonio College, that he has been placed on the Dean's Honor Roll for the Spring Semester.

The letter reads in part, "It is a pleasure to have students such as you in our college. We appreciate your work and wish for your continued success in your college endeavors."

Gerald is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Irvin J. Bendele of Hondo.

Mr. & Mrs. Wm. D. Centilli, Jr.

Couple United in double-ring ceremony

United in marriage in St. Paul Lutheran Church, Hondo, on May 6, 1972 was Miss Stephanie Wilson and William Draeger Centilli, Jr. Rev. A. M. Hanneman and Father George Steubben officiated in the double-ring ceremony.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Albert Wilson of Hondo and Mr. and Mrs. William Draeger Centilli, Sr. of Devine.

The bride was attired in a white A-line silk organza gown with re-embroidered Alencon lace, scalloped and scooped neckline, trimmed with seed pearls and bugle beads. Her long tapered sleeves of silk organza with lace appliques flared at the wrist. The hemline was border-edged with scalloped lace, clusters of seed pearls and bugle beads. A lace mantilla, floor-length with lace appliques of seed pearls and bugle beads edged with scalloped lace completed the silk illusion veil. Her bouquet was of yellow roses, white feathered carnations and ivy leaves.

Mrs. Monty Herring served as matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Jayne Taylor and Miss Margaret Centilli, sister of the groom, and Miss Janet Wilson, junior bridesmaid.

Edward Centilli, brother of the groom, was best man, with Ronnie Patterson, James Jolly and Clinton Tackert serving as groomsmen.

James Centilli, brother of the groom, Craig Hollmig, cousin of the bride, Nick Duhose and Dusty Moore served as ushers.

After the reception, which was held in St. John's Parish Hall, the couple departed for a wedding trip to the Texas Coast and are now at home in Devine.

Clyde Salzman receives 4-H award

Mrs. John Ballard of Somerset and Clyde Salzman of Moore have been cited as outstanding 4-H adult leaders by the Texas 4-H Youth Development Foundation. They were recognized as the top adult leaders in District 13 of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, parent organization of 4-H.

Both were honored at a special luncheon on June 7 in the Memorial Student Center on the Texas A&M University campus along with 25 other adult leaders from throughout the state. All were presented a special plaque by Robert (Bob) Hillery of Wichita Falls with the 4-H Foundation as a part of the 1972 State 4-H Roundup program.

Salzman works with 53 youngsters in the Moore 4-H Club. He has been an adult leader for eight years. His demonstration teams have participated in 4-H Roundup and have won numerous awards in sheep, poultry, swine, woodwork and electricity. He belongs to two subcommittees of the Frio County Program Building Committee--youth and 4-H and community improvement. "Clyde was one of the organizers and is still one of the organizational leaders of the Moore 4-H Club," says Eldred Jordan, county agricultural agent. "He is one of those people who believes in his community and spends almost all of his spare time with young people or for the community as a whole."

Got a fishing license?

Mexico is a bargain-hunter's paradise, most of the time. American anglers who cross the international bridge to fish on the Mexican side of Falcon Lake can get a fishing license for $1.25 which is valid for 30 days.

The Mexican fishing licenses are available in many places including Falcon State Park.

But the farther up the Rio Grande you go, the higher the price. A license across the Amistad Bridge at El Mirador is $8.00. That's $8.00 for any part of the year.

A Texas fishing license costs $2.15 for a whole year. That's a bargain.

Amistad bass population grows

The Amistad Lake population got reinforcements in May, says the Texas Parks and Wildlife newsletter.

Approximately 200,000 two-to four-inch fish were released in the huge Amistad Reservoir and more than 500,000 bass have been released in the waters this year.

Parks and Wildlife fish hatcheries also stocked 5,445 Rio Grande blue catfish in the lake last fall to add to the population of blues and channel cats.

The lake is becoming a popular spot for trotline fishermen as well as rod and reel fishermen.
